FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"This day is holy unto the Lord your God; mourn not, nor weep. neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength." Nehemiah 8: 9, 10. These words are especially appropriate for us today in light of the many things which prompt us to mourn and be sorry. Having come into God's house and presence let us "rejoice and be glad" and lift up our hearts in praises and thanksgiving to our God, our Creator and Redeemer. Each of you is welcomed into this house of prayer for all people. May you leave here transformed and blessed.

Thought for Today: Seize every opportunity to contribute to the happiness of those around you, sharing with them your affection. Words of kindness, looks of sympathy, expressions of appreciation, would to many a struggling, lonely one be as a cup of cold water to a thirsty soul. A word of cheer, an act of kindness, would go far to lighten the burdens that are resting heavily upon weary shoulders. It is in unselfish ministry that true happiness is found. And every word and deed of such service is recorded in the books of heaven as done for Christ. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren," He declares, "ye have done it unto Me." Matthew 25:40. – Counsels for the Church, Page 127
